BAYONNE, July 21.—Don Carlos has issued a manifesto guaranteeing religious toleration and engaging not to disturb the sales of church property at present completed; promising representative but not revolutionary government; undertaking to restore the finance of the country, and insuring liberty, so far as it is consistent with order. The manifesto concludes as follows: "If rebellion continues, we shall stifle it with cannon. Those who reject our proffer of conciliation to-day will be compelled to submit to the law of the conqueror to-morrow."

BERLIN, July 21.—Marshall Jewell, newly appointed Postmaster-General of the United States, has arrived in this city, from St. Petersburg, on his way home. He is engaged in inspecting the German postal service, and says he finds some arrangements which may be applied with advantage to the American postal system. Jewell leaves in a few days for Paris.

PARIS, July 21.—The Government, on Thursday, will announce its opposition to Perier's constitutional bill. Recent ministerial appointments make it still less probable that the bill will be adopted. If it is rejected, the belief is that further discussion on constitutional proposals will be postponed until November. The Assembly will be prorogued next week.

MADRID, July 22.—An official report of the loss of Ocuena has been received. The defense was brave and obstinate to the last. On the 13th, the Republicans defending the faubourg Carrieta, repelled three assaults made by Don Alphonso, with 8,000 men. The Carlists ultimately captured the faubourg. The Republicans retired to the principal square of the town, and refused to surrender. Four more attacks were made upon them, in each of which the Carlists met with a repulse. During the morning of the 15th, after the firing had lasted fifty-six hours, the Carlists gained the square and the Republicans began to retreat to the citadel, when they suddenly encountered a fresh force of 4,000 Carlists, who by some unexplained means had gained possession of the citadel. General Iglesias, the Republican commander, and all his officers and men, then surrendered as prisoners of war. The Carlists sacked and burned many houses, murdered a number of inhabitants, made heavy requisitions for provisions, and demanded a contribution amounting in the aggregate to two years' taxes paid by the city, and destroyed the fortifications. The enemy report their losses at 150 killed and 700 wounded.

PARIS, July 22.—In the Assembly, to-day, the Minister of Foreign Affairs stated that it was impossible for France to hold aloof from the Brussels Congress, but the Government would undertake nothing in connection with it without the consent of the Assembly. The Government will insist on the exclusion of naval questions, in accordance with the example of England.

LONDON, July 22.—The Times' Paris special says the Committee of Thirty agreed to the electoral bill fixing the ages of voters at twenty-five, providing for elections by arrondissements, instead of departments, and giving an additional member to every 50,000 inhabitants.

PARIS, July 22.—The Deputies of the Left are actively circulating for signature petitions for the dissolution of the Assembly, to be presented in the event of the defeat of M. Cismiri Perier's bill.

MADRID, July 22.—General Zaballo has sent eight battalions of troops to reinforce the Republicans in the province of Ocuena. The Carlists are in strong force in the province of Alava, between Miranda and Vittoria.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 22.—The Commission appointed by the President to devise a plan for the reclamation and preservation of overflowed lands along the lower Mississippi River met in Newport to-day, and held an informal meeting for consultation. All members present.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Alluding to the voluminous sworn statement of Tilton, accusing Beecher, the Tribune says: "The case now transcends the power of church conferences or well-meaning marplots to settle or conceal. Unless the frightful exposition is answered promptly and fully, the most famous pulpit since Paul preached in Athens is silenced. There is no longer safety and dignity in a refusal to answer. Beecher's own hand seems to bear witness against him. Satisfactory proof of the falsity of the accusation will be hailed as the tidings of great joy, and the position of the great preacher will be stronger than ever in the hearts of thousands; if he fails to clear himself, all Christendom will deplore the loss, and the pistol shot of Booth will have caused no deeper, and not so hopeless, a national sorrow."

A Tribune reporter has interviewed Mr. Cleveland, who said Mrs. Tilton and Mr. Beecher are preparing a statement, which will be submitted to the committee on Thursday, and which will satisfactorily explain all the correspondence between them and all other matters contained in Mr. Tilton's statement.

President Grant arrived here this morning from Long Branch, on his way to Paterson, N. J., to attend a reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Miss Rose Poe, last surviving sister of the late Edgar Allan Poe, died in this city, to-day, aged sixty-eight.

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.—Edward Wagner, who is charged with sending an infernal machine to the residence of Mr. Harrington, with the evident intention of blowing up the family of the latter, had a hearing at police headquarters to-day, and was committed, in default of $10,000 bail.

Mr. Ros has received another letter from the child-stealers, in which the abductors state that if he does not come to the front with the money demanded, as per arrangements made in previous letter, they will abandon all further communication with him.

LONG BRANCH, July 22.—The Fifth Maryland Regiment, accompanied by the United States Marine Band, arrived this morning. On Friday, they will be reviewed by General Grant and staff and Governors Parker and Dir. The President is expected to visit Atlantic City on Saturday, to remain several days.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The Mayor and postmaster of Vicksburg, Miss., have telegraphed to the President, protesting against troops being sent to that city, in accordance with the application of the Lieutenant-Governor. It was received by the Secretary of War, this morning, who at once forwarded it to the President, at Paterson, N. J. The President telegraphed last night his approval of the action of the Secretary in sending troops to Vicksburg, and authorized the Secretary to use his discretion. The Mayor and postmaster claim that there is no necessity whatever for troops. Secretary Belknap also this morning received from Acting Governor Davis a telegram, stating that particulars had been forwarded by mail, and suspended the order directing troops should be sent to Vicksburg until the statement of Davis is received.

Several bids, principally from New York city, have been received in response to Secretary Bristow's circular for subscriptions to the new five per cent. loan. A large additional installment is expected by to-morrow morning's mail, on account of to-morrow being the day set apart for the opening of the bids.

J. S. Jones has been appointed United States Marshal for the Southern District of Florida.

The Court of Commissioners of the Alabama claims met to-day, at the Department of State. All the Judges present, namely: Wells, of Michigan, (who is the presiding Judge), and Judges Raynor, of North Carolina, Pierson, of New Jersey, Porter, of Pennsylvania, and Baldwin, of Michigan, with Mr. John Davis, Clerk of Court. Ex-Postmaster-General Cresswell, having been designated by the President as counsel for the Government, was also present. After organization, the court proceeded to the consideration of rules to govern the proceedings before them, and to other business. Adjourned till to-morrow, when they will resume the subject of the rules. No claims will be considered until these shall be prepared and circulated.

Probabilities.—For the Middle States and the lower lake region, clear or fair weather will prevail, with East and South winds and slight rise of temperature, followed by falling barometer during Thursday. For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, partly cloudy weather and local rains. For the South Atlantic States, South-east to South-west winds and high temperature, except near the coast, and stationary or rising barometer.

AGUSTA, GA., July 22.—The Cotton Exchange, this evening, sent a report to the New Orleans Exchange, containing fifty-one answers from twenty-five Counties. The weather generally is reported more favorable than during the same period last year. No land planted has been abandoned. Most of the early planting has been replanted—therefore, nearly the whole late planting; stand equal to last year, but not well formed and bolted; labor efficient; condition good and growing rapidly; weed not as large and less fruit than last year at this time; sixty to seventy per cent. less fertilizers used than last year.

CHICAGO, July 22.—At 4 o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in the fine stone-front block, Nos. 212 and 213 Lake street, occupied by E. F. Hollister, dealer in carpets, and Giles Bros. & Co., jewellers. The stocks were entirely destroyed. The losses are heavy, as the firms were extensive dealers. The origin of the fire is unknown.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 22.—The State Grange Patrons of Husbandry commenced their session at Springfield, yesterday; attendance small.

CHARLESTON, July 22.—Arrived—Steamships Champion, New York; Virginia, Philadelphia; schooner Jessie Elizabeth, Baltimore.

CINCINNATI, July 22.—The Union composers of the Cincinnati Times, hearing that they were to be dismissed Saturday and their places filled by non-Union men, left their cases this morning in a body.

A correspondent of the New York Sun, speaking of the St. John's River in Florida, says that the actual source of this mysterious and beautiful stream has never been discovered. Its current is sluggish, and its waters are as yellow as liquorice juice. Living islands of vegetable matter float upon its bosom, driven hither and thither by every change of the wind, and acres of drifting froth dance upon its broad surface. The river is a chain of lovely lakes, interwoven in a network of wonderful marshes and lagoons. It is said to be the only river in the United States that rises in the South and runs due North. Its channel is more tortuous than that of the Mississippi. Its lakes and swamps are the homes of birds of royal plumage, and immense alligators, snakes and turtles sun themselves upon its ready banks.

A NOVEL PARTNERSHIP.—At Due West, some time since, a couple of young gentlemen, who desired to dress up occasionally, but still had an eye to economy, bought a fine beaver hat in partnership, and agreed to wear the same alternately. Everything was "lovely" for awhile, but finally the young men quarreled, and the one who had possession of the hat sold his half-interest to a highly-perfumed darkey, without consulting his partner. At the last accounts, the darkey was wearing the hat.

FRANCE.—The New York Herald demonstrates that the imperialism has made France what the first Napoleon called the English—"a nation of shop-keepers." The same paper adds that the gibe of Herr Blind, that they "are by no means over-fond of military service," is, in fact, a deep-seated truth, not dishonorable to a people who can point to Jena and Austerlitz as proofs of military prowess.

SPECIFIC.—Several Washington city preachers having made wholesale onslaughts upon the purity of the women connected with the stage, Mr. Frank Chantreaux offers to give $1,000 to prosecute any minister who will make a specific charge of that character against any leading lady of the profession. No profession is free from crime; and until Mr. Beecher and some other unfortunate clergymen, of all creeds, put themselves right on the record, an acknowledged assault upon the good name of actresses ought to be banished from the pulpit.

The Pope was formally expelled from the Order of Free Masons by the Grand Lodge which met in Italy on March 27. He was connected with a lodge at Palermo in his early youth, and charges were first preferred against him in 1865, but he refused to meet them. Subsequently, when he cursed the order, and excommunicated all members of it, the charges were renewed, a regular trial was held, and a decree of expulsion was entered and published, signed by King Victor Emmanuel, Grand Master of the Order of Italy.

THE BANK OF THE STATE BILLS.—The Attorney-General has appealed from the recent decision of Judge Graham as to the receivability of the bills of the Bank of the State for taxes, and the case will be argued before the Supreme Court of the State at the ensuing fall term. In the meantime, all proceedings on the part of the County Treasurer to enforce the collection of taxes in the cases under argument will be stayed.

George W. Williams, Esq., on his way from Charleston to Georgia, informed some of his Laurens friends who had subscribed to rebuild the railroad from Newberry, that if any of them were unable to raise the amount at this time for that purpose, he would let them have the money at seven per cent. until they could sell their cotton in the fall.

Carl Schurz has determined not to be a candidate for re-election as United States Senator. He has been offered the position of chief editor of the New York Staats Zeitung, with a salary of $20,000 per annum. He has not accepted this offer, although he has sold his interest in the St. Louis Westliche Post, perhaps to take the above position.

Schnylter Colfax would seem to be in a beneficent state of mind. In a recent Fourth of July oration he declared that in politics now-a-days men are elevated to a position only to have mud thrown at them; but he believed that there is still left the assurance that right will prevail and be done them at the grave. This is a beautiful sentiment.

Queen Victoria proposes to erect in St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, a magnificent monument to the Duke of Kent, her father. Room has been made by sending the Duke of Beaufort and his monument home to the family estate in Gloucestershire; as a King of the Belgians is still in the way, he is to be put up in the organ loft.

Ugh!—The latest horror exposed by the American Grocer is that some of the stuff that goes by the name of walnut catnip is nothing less than the extract of horse livers bought from manure factories in London. No wonder the poor stomach of man furnishes such rich harvests to the doctor!

THE HEALTH OF CHARLESTON.—City Registrar Leiby reports that there were fifty-one deaths in Charleston during the week ending on Sunday last, viz: Twelve white children, fifteen colored adults, and twenty-four colored children. Not a single white adult, male or female, died during the week.

The brigand compositor has got out to Kansas. The editor who wrote, "A big-hearted, valiant soul," was delighted the next day on seeing it in the paper, "A red-headed, malignant mule." An emaciated compositor was seen leaving town in a hurry, with an infuriated editor armed with a horse-pistol bringing up the rear.

IMMIGRATION.—Benton Jones, of Fort Pickens, returned home Monday, from several months sojourn in the West. He thinks South Carolina is the best country he has yet seen, and is now willing to die by his old mother. This is what we call the right kind of immigration. "Return, ye ransomed sinners, home."—Abbeville Medium.

The Cummins movement is said to include some twelve or more congregations, two of which are in Philadelphia, two in Chicago, two in New York, one each in Pittsburg, Peoria, Louisville and Washington, with perhaps one or two scattered in other cities.

It is not uncommon in giving advice to newly-married young ladies, who marry poor young men, to allude to the fact that Eve married a gardener; but they don't say anything about the gardener losing his situation on account of that match.

Slang words are not always slang. Take the word "jolly." In John Trapp's "Commentary on the Old and New Testaments," published in London 200 years ago, is to be read: "All was jolly quiet at Ephesus before St. Paul came thither."

One Long Branch hotel has a patent bowling alley that sets up its own pins and has no need of boys. Another intends to obtain an alley that will knock down its own pins and save the players a needless exertion.

Paris ladies wear around the neck the medals or crosses won by their husbands for the service they have rendered their country. The gentlemen wear the ribbons only; the ladies wear the medals.

A Sunday-school teacher was giving a lesson on Ruth: She wanted to bring out the kindness of Boaz in commanding the reapers to drop larger handfuls of wheat. "Now, children," she said, "Boaz did another nice thing for Ruth; can you tell me what it was?" "Married her," said one of the boys.

Just as the Rev. Mr. Hudson, of Michigan, had said to his little rural congregation, "I have found my sheep which was lost," a large sheep thrust its head into the church door and began to bleat. The congregation nearly burst in attempting to suppress cackling.

Titles are not worth much, except in England. A reason for this may be that in England the title has still important and valuable privileges attached to it, while in other parts of Europe it is chiefly useful to enable its wearers to marry an American girl, which, after all, is a privilege.

A young fellow in a Western town was fined $10 for kissing a girl against her will, and the following day the damsel sent him the amount of the fine, with a note saying that the next time he kissed her he must be less rough about it, and be careful to do it when her father was not about.

FATAL DIFFICULTY.—A difficulty occurred on Mr. Wm. Staggars Cooper's plantation, Sumter County, a few days ago, during which a colored man was shot and killed by Mr. Charles Cooper—the negro shooting at Cooper after he had fallen.

When you tell your servant to say that you are not a toney, you merely request him to assert that you are not a book. If his assurances to this effect induce visitors to believe that you are not at home, you are not answerable for the misunderstanding.

Jones, of Nevada, is at Long Branch. He has a team of four horses and a brilliant complexion. Jones handles the ribbons with great success, and thus supplies in a measure the loss of Jim Fisk.
